

CENTRAL AMERICA

PRIVATE GUIDED Moments

As a busy medical professional I don't have time to carefully put together the type of trip that we want to have in places we have never been before. What a delight and relief to have discovered Kensington tours! Our trip to Costa Rica was the epitome of personalized, professional, and exceptional service.

BEYOND THE BEACH

There is no disputing the beaches are stunning – but if you are not delving deeper into this colorful world, you're stopping short. Designed to take you into the heart of the region, Kensington's private guided journeys spotlight the magnificence of its natural beauty, reveal the secrets of its mystical ancient past, celebrate the vibrant cultures of today and offer up adventures aplenty.

- Safari by 4x4, horseback or boat to spy exotic monkeys, toucans, jaguars, tapirs and a host of colorful creatures that look truly out of this world.
- Swim with dolphins, receive a blessing from a native shaman, or explore the faded colonial glory of days gone by. Paired perfectly with the time you need to unwind, you'll be immersed into a deeper and more personal cultural experience.
- To match your perfectly tailored itinerary you'll need a place to rest your head. From jungle eco lodges, private islands and rainforest tree houses to over water bungalows, kid-tastic hotels and stylish boutique properties with butlers, Kensington's specialists know the perfect accommodations for every need.

Isn't it time to go?
